Coffee Filter Bouquet

Raid the kitchen cupboard for coffee filters and food dye to make and color your own bouquet of flowers. Try mixing your own color like Tink does.

YOU'LL NEED:

- ★ WHITE COFFEE FILTERS
- ★ FOOD COLORING (ANY COLORS YOU LIKE!)
- ★ GREEN PIPE CLEANERS
- ★ AN ICE CUBE TRAY OR PALETTE
- ★ A SMALL PAINTBRUSH OR EYEDROPPER
- ★ A BIG PLATE OR TRAY
- ★ A VASE OR BOWL TO DISPLAY YOUR FLOWERS
- ★ A SPRAY BOTTLE
- ★ SAFETY SCISSORS

1

Fold a coffee filter in half, then in half again, then in half again! Ask a grown-up to help you cut a curve at the top to make a petal shape. Then unfold to make a flower.

2

Place your flower on a plate or tray, with paper underneath to protect your surroundings. Give it a few squirts with the water bottle.

Tink's Workshop

3

Now choose your colors, straight from the bottle or try mixing your own shades in the palette. Splash onto the wet flower and watch the colors mix and swirl. Leave to dry. (Extra note: Use an eyedropper to add color if you have one!)

4

Make as many flowers as you like. It's fun to squirt and splash a few in one go! Once dry, gather up to make a flower shape and wind a green pipe cleaner around the bottom to make a stalk.

5

Now you can arrange your flowers into a beautiful bouquet! Carry your pretty posy with you or display in a bottle or vase on your windowsill.

Why not give them to a friend as a gift?
